Article 1. General provisions

- 1.1 This legislation establishes the legal framework for the formation, structure, operation, election processes, responsibilities, and oversight of political parties and governmental institutions within the State of San Andreas. It applies to all recognized political parties, elected officials, and government departments operating under the San Andreas government structure and serves as the foundation for maintaining lawful, transparent, and accountable governance.
- 1.2 This legislation is the highest legal authority governing political structures within San Andreas, superseded only by decisions of the Federal Government. In the event of a conflict between this code and any department specific rule, this legislation shall take precedence.
- 1.3 The sovereignty of the people of San Andreas shall be exercised exclusively through duly recognized political parties, and no citizen may claim or exercise governmental authority except through lawful election or appointment under this Code. Any political, electoral, or governmental action not expressly permitted or regulated by this Code shall be deemed unlawful and subject to review by the Department of Justice and/or the Federal Government.
- 1.4 The fundamental principles of this Code are Democracy, Accountability, Transparency and Continuity of Government in the state of San Andreas.
- 1.5 The executive government shall consist of five (5) key positions:
 - The Governor
 - Vice Governor(s)
 - The Attorney General
 - Director of the United States Secret Service (USSS)
 - Head of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS)

These officials shall also serve as County Commissioners and hold voting rights in all internal government decisions.

- 1.6 Political participation in San Andreas shall be open to all citizens, provided they meet eligibility requirements. No citizen shall be denied participation in political activity based on race, creed, or social standing.

Article 2. Political Parties and Membership

- 2.1 Political parties shall be the sole recognized entities through which candidates may contest elections and assume leadership of the State of San Andreas.
- 2.2 All recognized parties shall enjoy equal rights under this Code and may challenge the governing party in accordance with the election procedures defined herein.
- 2.3 A political party shall be recognized once it:
- Declares an official Party Leader, who serves as the representative and spokesperson of the party.
 - Submits a minimum of twenty (20) unique and active members, each of whom shall be signatory of party contract and be recognized as a party affiliate.
 - Provides proposed nominees for the five key offices.
- 2.4 The Leader of the Party shall submit the application for the recognition of the party to the Federal Government, who shall verify the authenticity of membership lists, nominees, and party structures before approval.
- 2.5 No member of the judicial chambers of the Supreme Court or the District Court of San Andreas may simultaneously serve as Leader of a political party.
- 2.6 Membership in a political party may end if:
- The member resigns voluntarily.
 - The member signs up for any other political party.
 - The member is convicted of a crime, arrested and lawfully disqualified by the court.
 - The member is placed on the central list of globally blacklisted persons from state funded organizations.
 - The Leader of the Party terminates their membership.
(This clause applies only to members who are not serving as County Commissioners.)
 - An internal no-confidence resolution is adopted by a simple majority (51%) of party members in a meeting, resulting in the termination of the individual's party membership.
 - The Federal Government declares the member ineligible to participate.

- 2.7 Party membership may change over time, but all parties must retain at least twenty (20) eligible members to remain recognized.

Article 3. County Commissioners

- 3.1 All members of the governing party must join the government to serve as County Commissioners and shall hold voting rights in internal party matters and government decisions.
- 3.1.1 Resignation or removal from, either party membership or the Government shall result in the automatic termination of their position as County Commissioner.
- 3.2 A County Commissioner may, at the discretion of the party leadership or relevant governing authority, concurrently hold another position within the Government; however, this is optional and shall not affect their status as a County Commissioner.
- 3.3 The key officials (The Governor, Vice Governor(s), The Attorney General, Head of IRS, Director of USSS) shall also hold the status of County Commissioners with full voting powers.
- 3.4 Weekly meetings of the County Commissioners are mandatory. The Governor or Party Leader shall convene the meetings, and at least fifteen (15) Commissioners must be present for voting to be valid.
- 3.5 County Commissioners may move a motion for discussion, voting, and adoption of a resolution on matters concerning party, government or government policies. To proceed, the motion must be supported and moved by no fewer than five(5) County Commissioners.

Article 4. Elections and Terms

- 4.1 Elections in San Andreas shall be contested between political parties and not between individuals. Citizens cast their votes for the party they support.
- 4.2 The election shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and procedures set forth in Article 14 of the Code of Procedures, where the voters will cast their votes for any of the political parties contesting the elections.

- 4.3 Following an election, the party that gains the most votes shall form the Government. The confirmed party shall then instate their chosen members into their designated roles once the elected party votes internally to confirm the top 5 positions.
- 4.4 A Government may remain in power indefinitely, provided no political party challenges for elections. Challenges may only be made in accordance with the Election Application Window defined herein.
- 4.4.1 A period of thirty (30) days shall constitute one (1) Government term, commencing from the date the governing political party assumes office.
- 4.4.2 During each term, except the first term of a sitting Government, an Election Application Window shall open for the final ten (10) days of that term, during which political parties may apply to challenge the current Government.
- 4.4.3 If no application is submitted within this ten (10) day period, the window shall close at the end of the term, and no challenges may be made outside of this period.
- 4.5 When a new party challenges the Government, elections shall be held. If the governing party wins, it remains unchanged. If the challenger wins, a transition period of two (2) days shall occur, after which the incoming party assumes office and replaces County Commissioners and the key offices.

Article 5. Internal Voting Procedures

- 5.1 All internal votes of County Commissioners require at least fifteen (15) members to be present. Any vote taken with fewer members present shall be considered invalid.
- 5.2 A two-thirds (66%) majority is required to elect or change the Governor, Vice Governor(s), or the Attorney General.
- 5.3 A simple majority (51%) is sufficient to elect or change the Head of IRS or the Director of USSS.
- 5.4 County Commissioners are not bound to vote for members of their own party and may elect or support any qualified citizen of San Andreas.

- 5.5 In the event that a vote results in a tie, the motion shall be considered failed. In such a case, the County Commissioners shall proceed to a new round of voting, considering the next available option or nominee until a majority decision is reached.
- 5.6 Votes of County Commissioners may be conducted privately; however, the outcomes must be recorded and publicly announced, including the total votes cast and percentage results, to ensure transparency of governmental decisions.
- 5.7 In any motion of no confidence, the individual against whom the motion is directed shall be excluded from participating in the voting process related to that motion.
- 5.7.1 Such motion shall not be the result of any political retaliation, personal vendetta, or punitive action arising from the member's lawful or rightful execution of their official duties.
- 5.8 A no confidence motion or resolution against a party member shall require a two-thirds majority vote (66%) to pass if the concerned member currently holds an executive government position as Governor, Vice Governor, or Attorney General.

Article 6. Succession and Replacement

- 6.1 If the Governor resigns, is unable to serve, or is removed from office. The County Commissioners shall immediately conduct a vote to elect a new Governor.
- 6.2 In the event of vacancy, any of the Vice Governors shall serve as Acting Governor until the County Commissioners formally elect a replacement.
- 6.3 Should any of the Vice Governor, Attorney General, Head of IRS, or Director of USSS resign, be removed, or become ineligible. The County Commissioners shall hold a vote to elect a replacement without delay.
- 6.4 The newly elected Governor by the County Commissioners must be submitted to the Federal Government for authorization before assuming office.
- 6.5 The Government shall remain stable during periods of transition, with existing Commissioners continuing their duties until successors are confirmed.

Article 7. Oversight and Accountability

- 7.1 The Department of Justice shall exercise continuous oversight of political parties and governmental institutions, ensuring compliance with this Code.
- 7.2 The Department of Justice shall also monitor government organizations, inspect hiring procedures, and issue directives where needed.
- 7.3 The Governor shall issue a weekly public press statement and engage in regular public appearances, ensuring transparency and accountability to the public.
- 7.4 Both the Governor and the governing political party are responsible for maintaining open communication with the public, ensuring that all statements and appearances are accessible for the citizens.
- 7.5 In the event of any dispute, ambiguity, or conflict arising from the interpretation or application of this code, the matter should be formally brought before the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall have the authority to review the issue, consider all relevant context and precedents, and issue a binding resolution.
